

Kakashi Palmeros

Information

Kakashi is a Shetland sheepdog born in the state of Georgia, in the United States, on November 10, 2019. Kakashi arrived in Mexico a couple of months after his birth and became part of the Palmeros family on May 20, 2020. Upon his arrival, Kakashi was a somewhat cautious dog who didn't like to interact with his new human family. Gradually, Kakashi adapted to his environment and became part of the family. His first residence was established in the neighborhood of Santa Maria la Ribera, where he began to interact with the world around him. His favorite food is chicken legs, and he enjoys chasing squirrels in the park.
